After Early Rise and Subsequent Reaction, Prices Show Little Change,

Note - Quotations reflect closing sales Monday, March 21.

New York, March 21.—Trading came almost to a standatill today and prices barely changed from list week's close, after an early rise and subsequent reaction. Serliement of the New Haven negotiations, the decrease in follo freight cars shown in the fortnightly report and an increase in freight movement on western lines supplied ammostion to the buils for operations at the opening, but the inquiry was not sufficiently broad to maintain prices.

Traders who covered on the rise late last week put out new lines when it because apparent that the market had lost atrangth. Copper shares made reliatively a better chowing than other stocks, owing to the metal both here and alroad.

Bonds were tregular.

A brisk demand for the Hill shares lifted Northern Prieffe live points.

The advance continued with vigor in the late afternoon. It was assimed by rumors of impending favorable developments in the Merlean situation.

The market closed firm. Weakness of the Rumely shares caused a fractional reaction. Northern Pacific less a point of its four point gain.
